

Your employer or payer will use this form to determine the amount of your provincial tax deductions.

Read the back before completing this form. Complete this form based on the best estimate of your circumstances.

Last name	First name and initial(s)	Date of birth (YYYY/MM/DD)	Employee number
Address including postal code		For non-residents only – Country of permanent residence	Social insurance number

1. Basic personal amount – Every person employed in Nova Scotia and every pensioner residing in Nova Scotia can claim this amount. If you will have more than one employer or payer at the same time in 2010, see the section called "Will you have more than one employer or payer at the same time?" on the next page.

2. Age amount – If you will be 65 or older on December 31, 2010, and your net income from all sources will be $29,919, or less, enter $4,019. If your net income for the year will be between $29,919 and $56,713 and you want to calculate a partial claim, get the TD1NS-WS, Worksheet for the 2010 Nova Scotia Personal Tax Credits Return, and complete the appropriate section.

3. Pension income amount – If you will receive regular pension payments from a pension plan or fund (excluding Canada Pension Plan, Quebec Pension Plan, Old Age Security, or Guaranteed Income Supplement payments), enter $1,138, or your estimated annual pension income, whichever is less.

4. Tuition and education amounts (full time and part time) – If you are a student enrolled at a university, college, or educational institution certified by Human Resources and Skills Development Canada, and you will pay more than $100 per institution in tuition fees, complete this section. If you are enrolled full time, or if you have a mental or physical disability and are enrolled part time, enter the total of the tuition fees you will pay, plus $200 for each month that you will be enrolled. If you are enrolled part time and do not have a mental or physical disability, enter the total of the tuition fees you will pay, plus $60 for each month that you will be enrolled part time.

5. Disability amount – If you will claim the disability amount on your income tax return by using Form T2201, Disability Tax Credit Certificate, enter $4,887.

6. Spouse or common-law partner amount – If you are supporting your spouse or common-law partner who lives with you, and whose net income for the year will be $699 or less, enter $6,989. If his or her net income for the year will be between $699 and $7,688 and you want to calculate a partial claim, get the TD1NS-WS, and complete the appropriate section.

7. Amount for an eligible dependant – If you do not have a spouse or common-law partner and you support a dependent relative who lives with you, and whose net income for the year will be $699 or less, enter $6,989. If his or her net income for the year will be between $699 and $7,688 and you want to calculate a partial claim, get the TD1NS-WS, and complete the appropriate section.

8. Caregiver amount – If you are taking care of a dependant who lives with you, whose net income for the year will be $13,274 or less, and who is either your or your spouse's or common-law partner's:

- parent or grandparent (aged 65 or older), or
- relative (aged 18 or older) who is dependent on you because of an infirmity, enter $4,753.

If the dependant's net income for the year will be between $13,274 and $18,027 and you want to calculate a partial claim, get the TD1NS-WS, and complete the appropriate section.

9. Amount for infirm dependants age 18 or older – If you are supporting an infirm dependant aged 18 or older who is your or your spouse's or common-law partner's relative, who lives in Canada, and whose net income for the year will be $5,515 or less, enter $2,716. You cannot claim an amount for a dependant you claimed on line 8. If the dependant's net income for the year will be between $5,515 and $8,231 and you want to calculate a partial claim, get the TD1NS-WS, and complete the appropriate section.

10. Amounts transferred from your spouse or common-law partner – If your spouse or common-law partner will not use all of his or her age amount, pension income amount, tuition and education amounts, or disability amount on his or her income tax return, enter the unused amount.

11. Amounts transferred from a dependant – If your dependant will not use all of his or her disability amount on his or her income tax return, enter the unused amount. If your or your spouse's or common-law partner's dependent child or grandchild will not use all of his or her tuition and education amounts on his or her income tax return, enter the unused amount.

12. TOTAL CLAIM AMOUNT – Add lines 1 through 11.
Your employer or payer will use your claim amount to determine the amount of your provincial tax deductions.

Completing Form TD1NS

Complete this form only if you are an employee working in Nova Scotia or a pensioner residing in Nova Scotia and any of the following apply:

- you have a new employer or payer and you will receive salary, wages, commissions, pensions, Employment Insurance benefits, or any other remuneration;
- you want to change amounts you previously claimed (such as when the number of your eligible dependants has changed);
- you want to increase the amount of tax deducted at source.

Sign and date it and give it to your employer or payer.

If you do not complete a TD1NS form, your new employer or payer will deduct taxes after allowing the basic personal amount only.

Will you have more than one employer or payer at the same time?

If you have more than one employer or payer at the same time and you have already claimed personal tax credit amounts on another Form TD1NS for 2010, you cannot claim them again. If your total income from all sources will be more than the personal tax credits you claimed on another TD1NS, enter "0" on line 12 on the front page and do not complete lines 2 to 11.

Why is there a Form TD1NS?

Your employer or payer uses the personal tax credit amounts you claim on your TD1NS form to calculate how much provincial tax to deduct from each payment.

Total income less than total claim amount

Check this box if your total income for the year from all employers and payers will be less than your total claim amount on line 12. Then your employer or payer will not deduct tax from your earnings.

Additional tax to be deducted

If you wish to have more tax deducted, complete the section called "Additional tax to be deducted" on the federal Form TD1.

Reduction in tax deductions

You can ask to have less tax deducted if on your income tax return you are eligible for deductions or non-refundable tax credits that are not listed on this form (for example, periodic contributions to a Registered Retirement Savings Plan (RRSP), child care or employment expenses, and charitable donations). To make this request, complete Form T1213, Request to Reduce Tax Deductions at Source, to get a letter of authority from your tax services office. Give the letter of authority to your employer or payer. You do not need a letter of authority if your employer deducts RRSP contributions from your salary.
